

W. P. WALTON.

THE Czar of Russia, who ruled with iron hand over the lives and destinies of millions of men and was monarch of a sixth of the entire world's area, has himself succumbed after a losing fight with the tyrant death. There will be no tears shed over the death of a man who has without trial and without opportunity for self defense, condemned with cruel despotism thousands upon thousands of helpless men and women to the horrors and wastes of Siberia. In most instances to gratify whims of his own devilish will and did other fiendish acts that made living a mockery. It may be some consolation to those who have suffered and are still suffering from the mailed hand of the despot that his life was not over pathways strewn with flowers, for he has been dodging imaginary bullets from anarchist's pistols and fearing assassination ever since he ascended the throne in 1881. His father Alexander II was killed by a nihilist bomb and there was not a moment of the life of Alexander III free from dread and fear. He was comparatively a young man, having been born in 1845. The Czarovich, who succeeds to the throne under the title of Nicholas II and will rule over 100,000,000 people, is but 26 years old, but he is said to be a man of great learning and much common sense, his education being given with a view of his certainly to become Czar. He has it in his power to improve the state of affairs or to bring despotism into greater odium. It is likely, however, that clothed in his brief authority, he will like his predecessors cut such fantastic tricks as will make the angels weep.

THE political skies have greatly brightened in the last few days and if our whole ticket is not elected we are greatly mistaken in our estimate of our democratic countymen. We believe they will stand firm in the faith and vote for the best ticket ever offered. It is so incomparably better than the mongrel ticket the republicans have put up that we can not see how any man who has the interest of county at heart, much less his party, can do otherwise than vote it straight. It is only from the talk of disaffected democrats that the boss had the temerity to offer himself and his henchmen for public approval. Let such democrats lay aside all resentment, think only of principle and their plain duty and all will be well. As a parting word before we meet at the polls, we say: Democrats, gird on your armor and quit yourself like men and our next paper will bloom with crowing roosters.

REPORTS from the 11th district are most encouraging for the democracy. George Stone has made a magnificent canvass and created enthusiasm everywhere he has been, and we confidently expect to hear of his election. It is estimated that 30,000 votes will be cast and that Stone will receive 12,000, the two republican candidates dividing the other 18,000, so that neither will get a majority. Seven or eight of the county clerks have disregarded Judge Jones' injunction to put Colson's name under the eagle and his followers are all mixed up. Knowing democrats figure Stone's majority at 1,500, a good margin to play on, and shows the confidence that the situation has induced.

THE news from the 6th is not reassuring. In fact the election of Col. Walter Evans is so confidently predicted that we fear there is much ground for it. The A. P. A's, that most detestable of organizations, is getting in its work because Mr. McDermott happens to be a Catholic. In the 7th, we do not think there is much danger for Owens, who will doubtless be elected by a good majority. The other districts, including our own 8th, seem to be sure shots. Let us all do our duty and put a quietus on republican claims and boasts.

U. S. JUDGE BARR, holding court at Louisville, dismissed an indictment against a Mayville man for sending a dunning postal card. The scamps, who refuse to pay their honest debts, and then try to annoy their creditors by indicting them for sending postal cards reminding them of their indebtedness, are realizing that such occupation is gone. The man too mean to pay his debts is entitled to no consideration of men and ought not to have any recourse at law.

THE democrats in New York say Hill will be elected by 21,253 plurality. The republicans say Morton will be elected by 55,025 plurality. In this instance you can take your choice without paying your money.

THE president has lowered himself in the estimation of all true democrats by not sinking private resentments and being his efforts for Senator Hill and the ticket. The Senator may have occasionally acted in variance with his declaration, "I am a democrat," and may have tried to embarrass Mr. Cleveland's administration as much as possible, but the democrats saw fit to nominate him for governor of the great State of New York, and it became the duty then of all democrats to support him. We have been an uncompromising Cleveland man and have been for him through thick and thin, but his sulking in camp when he might have done the party so much good, rather makes us feel that our idol is somewhat clay after all.

COL. W. O. BRADLEY, with the air of a conquering hero, returned Sunday from a tour of the 21 and 3d districts, in which he made speeches that made the eagle scream. He claims that the charge made in the Courier-Journal that he was afraid to meet Bill Ellis is a slander so pronounced as to be criminally libelous and says Capt. Ellis took the court-house from him at Hartford and he had to speak outside, although it was his appointment. After that he refused to meet a man who would treat him so.

THE republicans are making a death struggle for the next Congress, but impartial reports from all the States indicate that the democracy will still hold that body. Let every Kentucky democrat see that the old Commonwealth does not contribute any to republican success.

THE president and Secretary of State sent dolorous messages of sympathy over the death of the Russian Czar. That is the way such things are done, but we common people are glad to hear of the demise of a tyrant, be he ruler or a common every day man.

—Governor Pennoyer, of Oregon issued the following proclamation: "I hereby appoint the last Thursday of the month Thanksgiving holiday. In the day of prosperity be joyful, but in the day of adversity consider Ecclesiastes viii, 14."

—Reports sent to the Manufacturers' Record during the past week show the South generally to be making rapid progress in business and industrial matters. The tendency of population and capital southward is becoming more pronounced than ever before in the history of that section, and outlook Southern for development and prosperity is very bright.

—Wayne county is again worked up over a paying strike of oil. A company is being formed to develop that section.
—Five firemen were crushed beneath falling walls and two may die from the effects of a fire in Louisville.

—Fire at Indianapolis caused $200,000 damage and resulted in the injury of two firemen. The Indiana Medical College was among the buildings burned.

—Five persons were fatally injured at Terrell, Tex., Saturday by the falling of a porch on which a large crowd was standing witnessing a circus parade.

—One result of to-day's election in South Carolina will in all probability be the choice of a Legislature overwhelmingly for Gov. Tillman for United States Senator.

—John Tharp, Deputy Circuit Clerk of Madison county, and Miss Kate McChord eloped to Jeffersonville after hot pursuit by irate relatives of the girl, and were married.

—As the outcome of a political row, Jas. Haney shot and killed Thos. Floyd, at Hopewell, in Greenup county, and wounded Oliver Floyd. The men were respected farmers.

—The Japanese are winning victories now as often as they can find a Chinese army willing to meet them. There has been heavy fighting north of Port Arthur with the usual result.

—The N. Y. World says: If the democrats be not disappointed by the people at the polls, they will elect 230 members of the next House of Representatives to 116 republicans and 11 populists and silver men. On the other hand, if the expectations of the republicans are realized, they will have 217 members in the next House to 131 democrats and 9 populists. If the result shall be midway between the pre-election expectations of both sides, the House of Representatives will consist of 181 democrats, 166 republicans and about 10 populists.

FAMOUS EXILES.

The Earl of Clarendon wrote his famous historical works while in exile.

All the princes of the Bourbon family have for a long time lived in exile from France.

Bennaman, the Scottish poet, while in exile and prison wrote the famous "Paraphrases of the Psalms."

It is said that at this time there are 22 ex-foreigners residing in different parts of Europe, none of them in the countries they once ruled.

A great many of the popes have been forced into exile, generally by enemies among the turbulent Roman populace. A few were restored, but most of them died in exile.

The Emperor Charles V lived in voluntary exile during the last years of his life. His chief occupation in his retirement was devising new viands to tempt his gluttonous appetite.

Ex-Empress Eugenie lives in England as the guest of Queen Victoria, who is her warm personal friend. She often goes to the continent and is said on one or two occasions to have visited Paris incognito.

After the downfall of Napoleon, his mother, Mme. Bonaparte, went to Blois and thence to Rome. She returned to France during the hundred days, and after Waterloo went back to Rome, where she died in 1836.

Isabella II of Spain was exiled by her long suffering people in 1870. She has since lived in Paris, and while in by no means good repute with respectable people before she has been much less careful of her conduct since her enforced retirement from the throne.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

ODDS AND ENDS.

The best evidence goes to show that the pyramids of Egypt were royal sepulchers.

The officials of Korea wear upon their hats the figures of various birds and animals.

Among the Turks the bodies of the dead are held in extreme reverence, though the cemeteries are used as picnic grounds.

There are, says a New York newspaper, about 10 Afro-American lawyers in New York, 13 in Boston and more than 25 in Chicago.

The English sovereign's sons and grandsons, when created peers, are entitled to seats in the house of lords at the left of the throne.

One of the conditions of membership of a New York club is that each member must give at least one hour a week to doing some good action.

It is estimated that there are fully 60,000 negroes in the young territory of Oklahoma. Most of them are in Blaine and Logan counties.

Evaporation is two or three times greater in the sunshine than in the shade and five or six times as great in summer as in winter, is greater during a breeze than in a calm and is greater from fields of melting snow than from an equal surface of the ocean.

RAILROAD JOTTINGS.

Berlin is to have an elevated railroad like New York, with the difference that electricity is to be used as the motive power.

The Lake Shore Electric Railway company has been incorporated, with a capital of $10,000,000. The new line will run from Chicago to Milwaukee.

The Monterey and Mexican Gulf Railroad company has arranged with the Mexican government to extend the road from Trevino to Sierra Mojada, and thence to Mazatlan, on the Pacific coast.

All the employees of the Lehigh Traction company at Hazleton, Pa., are insured by the company. This is done in order to protect the men in case of any injury, or perhaps death, that they might sustain in an accident.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK

OF STANFORD, KY.

Capital Stock.....$200,000
Surplus.....21,300

Attention of the public is invited to the fact that this is the only National Bank in Stanford. Under the provisions of the National Bank Act depositors are secured not only by the capital stock, but by the stockholders' liability for an amount equal to the stock, so that depositors of this institution are secured by a fund of $400,000. Five sworn statements of the condition of the bank are made each year to the United States government and its assets are examined at stated times by government agents, thus securing additional and perfect safety to depositors.

This institution, originally established as the Deposit Bank of Stanford in 1853, then re-organized as the National Bank of Stanford in 1863 and again re-organized as the First National Bank of Stanford in 1884, has had practically an uninterrupted existence of 35 years. It is better supplied now with facilities for transacting business promptly and liberally than ever before in its long and honorable career. Accounts of corporations, individuals, firms and individuals respectfully solicited.

The Directory of this Bank is composed of:
Foreman Reid, Lincoln county;
S. T. Harris, Lincoln;
G. A. Lackey, Lincoln;
J. W. Hayden, Stanford;
S. H. Baughman, Lincoln;
J. S. Hocker, Stanford;

PERSONAL POINTS.

Mrs. PAULINE HAYS is visiting in Crab Orchard.

Mrs. JOE COFFEY went up to Livingston yesterday.

Mr. JOHN FROST, of Lexington, has been the guest of Mr. George B. Wearren. Miss MAMIE LYNN, of Lincoln, is visiting Mrs. T. M. Thatcher. Somerset Paragon.

Mr. J. M. REID is again very ill of heart disease, but was some better yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. CALDWELL will move to the house vacated by Mrs. Julia Hughes.

Capt. WILLIAM GREER tells us that Cumberland Gap tunnel is caving in badly again.

Mrs. J. T. JOHNSON, of Louisville, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe H. Rout.

Mr. E. W. JONES, of Pineville, one of the best democrats in the mountains, was here Sunday.

Mr. J. P. CROW returned from the northwest Sunday, where he has been in business.

Miss MAGGIE LEWIS, of Buckeye, spent a few days with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. T. M. Lewis.

Mrs. JOHN BELL GIBSON, who had been the guest of Mrs. S. J. Embury, went to Cincinnati Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. LOGAN are now comfortably located at their pretty home on Rush Branch pike.

Mrs. MARY W. BOWMAN and Master Horace Bowman, of Danville, are visiting at Mr. Forester's field's.

Mrs. MARY J. WEATHERFORD and Mrs. Sallie Shipman, of Hustonville, were the guests of Mrs. P. W. Green.

Mr. GEORGE R. WATERS has engaged with the wholesale house of B. Welles & Co., Cincinnati, as traveling salesman.

Will J. YEAGER, of Louisville, was up Sunday to see his sweetheart, who has nearly recovered from a spell of sickness.

Miss KATIE LEE YEAGER, of Boyle, is the guest of Miss Annie Hale, and as a consequence one of our force is very happy.

Mr. SAM MAGEE was here yesterday and informed us that the democratic ticket would come out all right at Crab Orchard.

Mrs. JAMES ROBINSON went to Middlesboro Saturday to visit her sons, James, Jake and Will Robinson, who are in business there.

The sick are all improving, though Mr. H. C. Farris is making slow progress. Miss Nettie Wray is better and so is Dwight Root.

Miss VIRGINIA BOWMAN is visiting her cousins in Louisville and the newspapers pay her beauty and qualities of mind and heart high compliments.

J. S. KENNEDY, of Richmond, continues to journey towards Hustonville, and the indications are that we shall have to record the marriage of another beauty of that village of beautiful women.

Misses MARY ANN FRANCES ADAMS gave a delightful entertainment at their home at Hustonville Saturday night in honor of Misses Martha Paxton Root and Isabella Owsley. About 20 couples enjoyed it.

Hon. J. BOYLE STONE, of Liberty, was here Friday. He is very hopeful of his brother George's election and thinks he has a splendid chance to be the next Congressman from the 11th.

Mr. SAMUEL H. REID and Misses Jessie and Kate Cook, of Hustonville, were down Sunday to see Mrs. E. C. Walton and little Lucy Lee. The latter remains alarmingly ill, though the doctors think the crisis has past.

A letter from Harlan Court-house states that a few evenings ago Judge R. Boyd, of London, Ky., who was out speaking for Mr. Colson, fell from a second-story porch and received injuries which may prove fatal.

Mr. R. G. WILLIAMS, of the Law Department of Centre College, was here yesterday, but he will be in Mt. Vernon to-day, not only to put it under the rooster, but to work that others may do so. Dick is a democrat from Aawayback.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. KELLER, Jr., arrived from Washington yesterday. Mr. Keller came to vote for Gov. McCreary and our excellent ticket. He came 800 miles to do so. It is a very poor democrat who won't go a mile or two to aid us in the present struggle.

Mr. L. D. SAMSON, of the Cincinnati Commercial Gazette editorial staff, who has been writing up the Congressional races in the close districts of Tennessee and Kentucky, was here Saturday en route to his old home at Barbourville to vote. Mr. Samson has both a lucrative and important position on the great paper and we are glad to observe that he is holding it with credit. He tells us that our old friend, Walter P. Emerson, late of Louisville, is doing the local political reporting for the same paper and stands very high in the confidence of the management.

Our new goods will be in this week call and we will interest you. Danks, the Jeweler.

New goods of all kinds and a big lot of Zellger shoes just received at S. H. Shanks'. Call and see.

FOR RENT.—Residence occupied by B. K. Wearren. Price $15, monthly payments. Thos. Richards, Stanford.

DEMOCRATS we believe we've got 'em. We know we have if every one of us does his duty. Vote early, if you can't vote often.

The lecture engagement of Gen. John B. Gordon is going to be the event of the season. All the old soldiers on both sides of the late war and everybody else should hear him.

CULHANE'S MINSTRELS, the only minstrel organization of the age without a peer, without an equal, the best one to visit our city this season. Walton's Opera House, Wednesday, Nov. 7.

TO TEACHERS.—I am in receipt of notice that the State treasurer will not be able to pay the 20 per cent. school fund due in November, but will pay 40 per cent. by December. W. F. McClary, supt.

J. MACK HUBBLE, formerly of the McKinney section, has bought of T. V. Terrell his stock of goods at Woodstock and will launch for a merchant. Mr. Ferrill has rented the Popplewell Hotel at Somerset and will take charge Dec. 1.

D. BRYANT, a brakeman on the South end local, whose home is at Livingston, had his thumb and fore finger cut off and his hand mangled while coupling cars, and came here Friday to have Dr. Peyton to give them necessary attention.

TO PAINTERS.—Sealed bids for painting Mt. Xenia school-house will be received at the school-house at noon, Thursday, Nov. 8. A member of the committee will be on hand to give specifications of the work to be done. D. B. Stagg, of committee.

CULHANE'S MINSTRELS at Walton's Opera House, Wednesday, Nov. 7th. This attraction comes here flushed from their week's engagement at Indianapolis, giving the most meritorious and compact minstrel ever seen in this city. The singing is first-class as also are the novel ties.

BLEFFED.—"I'll bet you $1,000 that I get 17,000 votes next Tuesday," said Hon. David G. Colson to an I. J. man Friday as he stood on the platform of a passing train. "We called him," and in our anxiety to get some of the magic city's maguete's money, we tried to drag him from the train, but he pleaded pressing business and went his way a beaten and a bluffed bluff.

Mr. F. B. TWIDWELL is waking things up at Hustonville. He was here a day or two ago and engaged space in this paper to tell his people that hereafter they will not have to go elsewhere than to his store to get drugs, medicines, fancy groceries, silverware, &c., at prices that can not be duplicated anywhere. He is going to have a full stock of holiday goods. Save your money and buy of him.

The trial of Will Hale for the murder of George Pennington occupied the court from Thursday till Saturday night, the jury being discharged at 10 o'clock, unable to agree. They stood: four for capital punishment, seven for terms of 2 to 21 years and 1 for acquittal. There was a good deal of cross swearing in the case. The prisoner and his crowd proved that Pennington shot first and when Hale was expostulating with him, but the preponderance of the evidence was that Hale had not only fired the first shot, but had done so maliciously and without cause. The argument occupied the whole of Saturday and all of the speeches were good. The prosecution, through Messrs. J. B. Paxton and J. S. Owsley, Jr., plead for capital punishment, while Messrs. W. H. Miller and Harvey Helm could not do much more than plead for mercy. They are therefore more than pleased with a hung jury. The court was not in session yesterday, having adjourned for the election till Wednesday.

The grand jury finally adjourned Friday, after returning 40 indictments; nothing was found against Ed Simpson for shooting Bob Whitley, but an examining court will investigate the case.

LOADED SHELLS, leggins, hunting coats and vests at W. B. McKibben's.

Two cottages on Whitley Avenue for rent at $8 each per month. Miller & Helm.

WALK in take a cup of coffee with Will Wearren to-day. He asks you in big type to "come."

For $3,000 and $5,000 accident tickets at 25c per day call on J. H. Kirby, the insurance man.

Vote early and vote straight by putting the X under the rooster. That's all that is necessary for a genuine democratic vote.

It is all over but the voting. Democrats, be true to yourselves and cast your ballot for the whole ticket, so that we may shout to-night.

See the novel street parade of Culhane's Minstrels Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock and you will be sure to attend the performance at Walton's Opera House that night.

The Centre College foot ball club defeated the Louisville Athletic Club on their own grounds Saturday 24 to 4. The Louisville mob was very disorderly and treated the visitors very ungentlemanly.

There is not much interest taken in the race for councilmen here. One ticket is composed of S. H. Baughman, J. C. Florence and M. F. Elkin. The other is W. L. Withers, J. M. Stone and J. M. Hall.

Yesterday was as dreary a day as ever came in bleak November. Snow clouds obscured the sky and a searching north wind made outdoor operations exceedingly disagreeable. The weather dispatch said there would be a heavy frost last night and colder to-day.

It ought not to be necessary to remind democrats of their duty to-day. All true ones will remain steadfast to the faith and not do that which they will ever afterwards be ashamed. Vote the straight ticket by putting your X under the rooster, like we have on another page.

There is, we think, little danger of the defeat of any of our ticket but Mr. Givens. The reason of this is not that Mr. Givens is not worthy of the office and competent to fill it, but the republicans, at the dictation of the boss, will do anything to elect their man for this office. Democrats, we appeal to you to avert the calamity that the election of such a man as Boss Davison would produce. Vote for Givens and the full ticket.

A SWEET CROWN.—The Danville Advocate's Hustonville correspondent tells of a negro love feast there the other night and says: Lawyer Davison, of Stanford, a negro doctor from somewhere and Ben Alford, of Stanford, made fiery, untamed speeches to the colored brother, in which they promised him everything save the 40 acres and mule. It was a lovely crowd and they had a lovely time. These back-alley fellows ought not to be trusted with public office, and they certainly will not be in Lincoln county.

COMPROMISED.—The following item comes to us marked in the Dallas, Texas, Times-Herald: "The suit of James Guthrie vs. B. M. and C. W. Gano, and the damage suits of the Ganos vs. Guthrie in the United States circuit court at Dallas have been settled by a compromise. Guthrie receives $10,000 of his claim and the balance, $16,500, is allowed the Ganos for damages. Guthrie withdraws the charges made in his affidavit for attachment and admits they were erroneous or untrue when made."

The V. A. M. Literary Society kept open house at the college Saturday afternoon and a large number accepted invitations to attend. The program was both enjoyable and meritorious and all who were present went away much pleased. President Miss Ethel Beazley presided very gracefully and Miss Mattie Hopper, the secretary, performed her duties admirably. She also sang a solo, "Over the Stars there is Rest," in a very excellent manner. Miss Mattie Cash recited nicely, Miss Alice Baughman read a selection from an article by J. R. Lowell in a sweetly modulated voice and Miss Adele Sausley read a beautiful essay on "Some Applications of the Golden Rule." Then came a solo by Miss Mary Cowen, who sang in a charming manner "Ashore." She has a voice as clear and sweet as a bird's and the song fairly electrified the audience. She also rendered a difficult piano solo with a master hand. Miss May Hughes, the elocution teacher, in costume, recited "The Marriage of the Flowers," a portion of it in minuet, and it was most beautifully and gracefully done. It was the first exhibition of her highly cultivated talent here and she won both encomiums and applause. Miss Beazley then thanked the audience for its interest and attention and the very pleasant exercise was brought to a close by Rev. W. E. Ellis, who pronounced the benediction.

GAS.—In boring for water at the works gas was struck yesterday at 4 o'clock and is now blowing out at a lively rate. We may be happy yet, you bet.

SUGAR is just as cheap as it was and the government now gets big revenue out of it. The democrats did it. Vote to keep them in power.

BOYS, to the wife of Mr. E. C. Walton, a girl. It lived but a few hours and then its flickering little light went out to shine in a fairer clime. The doubly stricken mother is doing reasonably well.

MR. ALBERT S. WALLACE, who has been voting the democratic ticket since the days of Van Buren, tells us that he is going to put his X under the rooster again to-day. Fine example. Go thou and follow it.

THERE seems to be some doubt in the minds of voters about the proper way to mark their ballots. If you want to vote the straight democratic ticket, you have only to put the cross under the rooster, where we have in another column. It will not be necessary then to mark in the squares opposite the names of the candidates. The cross immediately under the rooster does the business. Put it there and let the game chicken do the scratching if any is to be done. If you attempt it you will be sure to make both.

BOSS DAVISON, who sneaked around in the knobs and told the people that he would pay them for working the county roads if elected county judge, had the wind taken out of his sails by a card from James Walker Givens, who had caught on to his little game, saying that he had for years been for paying men a reasonable amount to work roads. This brought the fly-by-night candidate from cover and he issued a circular saying he had forced Mr. Givens to the position he had taken, but that he was really against what he claimed to be for, as he was a turnpike president. Unnased as he is himself to acting openly and fairly, the boss can see nothing but hypocrisy in others. He can not make good a single promise with which he has duped those who do not know better, and it is passing strange that such a man as he is known to be can fool sensible people. We are authorized to say that the road law passed by a democratic legislature will be administered by a democratic fiscal court and that the poor people will be given its full benefits for work done.

We doubt if during his sweet evangel of 18 years Rev. George O. Barnes has ever held a more pleasant meeting than the one he closed here Sunday night, nor one that was more greatly enjoyed by his hearers. From its opening till the sweet notes of "God be with You till We Meet Again" filled the souls of the hearers with sweetest melody, the services were enjoyed by large audiences, who sat under the spell of Bro. Barnes' magnetism and touching eloquence. The good evangelist has not been in better condition for years. Though 68 years of age, the fire of his enthusiasm continues to burn brightly and he preaches the gospel of "God is Love and Nothing Else" with a fervid eloquence that is convincing and converting. As usual the music was a special feature of the services. Miss Marie can sing as no other woman can and we can imagine those songs will be sung "in the sweet bye-and-bye," "when the mists have rolled away." The troupe was sent to Danville by Judge J. W. Alcorn yesterday in his carriage and after a week there, with services each night, the party will leave for Sanibel Island, Florida. A large number of Lancaster people attended the Sunday afternoon service here and listened to Bro. Barnes' matchless sermon against spiritualism with rapt attention and pleasure. We are glad to know that our people were fair liberal in their contributions and that the troupe went away a $100 or so better off. Mr. Barnes needs money badly to finish paying for his home, which he is sure will prove a rich legacy for his family.

The pension payments from the Federal Treasury during October were $11,053,357.
